HEADLINE: Greenstone takes Force to market

AUTHOR: Sarah Thompson

It is understood that Greenstone Partners is advising Helmsman Capital on the sale of Force Corp. There has been a flurry of activity involving private equity owned rental equipment businesses.

In May Algeco Scotsman, owned by TDR Capital, bought Ausco Modular.

Next Capital has been considering merging its Australian and New Zealand equipment businesses.

Light may also now shine on the CHAMP Ventures shareholding in United Equipment and RMB Capital Partners' interest in Instant Access.

National Hire Group was part of the deal between Seven Network and Kerry Stokes' private WesTrac vehicle, which might affect The Carlyle Group's position on a sale of Coates Hire.

Propel Investments was recently advised by Greenstone when it sold bulk-liquid port terminals company Marstel to Stolt-Nielsen of Norway.
